Telephone Co. Buys Site for New Dial Office

Savage Property on Lake Street Near Present Plant Bought

A contract for the purchase of property on the south side of Lake Street, just west of Victoria Street, has been signed by the Illinois Bell Telephone company. It was announced this week by John M. Littler, telephone manager.

Littler said the company plans eventually to erect a new dial telephone office on the site, which has a frontage of 66 feet on Lake Street and a depth of about 132 feet. The property, around the corner from the Illinois Bell's present location, is improved with a vacant one-story frame building.

Seller of the property is the Reverend Joseph E. Savage of Antioch, who is being represented by Attorney Edward C. Jacobs.

Littler said the Illinois Bell plans for constructing the new building depend on the availability of materials and the necessary scarce telephone equipment as well as consideration of the costs involved. No date has been decided upon for the start of construction, he added.

Boat Races Sunday at Yacht Club Bohemia to Be on Surveyed Course

Antioch Boat to Make Debut Along With Other New Contenders

It will be for the first time that boats will race over a surveyed course in the Chain O' Lakes region when the speed boys put their craft through their paces Sunday afternoon at the Yacht Club Bohemia at Stanton Point, Fox Lake.

The course of a mile and two-thirds was surveyed on the ice last winter and buoys sunk to mark the distance accurately. Now the time and records will be official.

There will be some mighty swift boats on the lake Sunday, especially in the E class.

Joe Friesinger of Lake Catherine will have his Tramp there, and Joe Hofer of McHenry will enter his Jo-Vie. Others will include the Icky-Poo of Bert Bliss, of Bluff Lake; Mel Buelow's well known Chickie; Aloah III of Long Lake's Tracy Hill; and Gus Gunstrom's new Viking II.

The new boat, Hobo, of Howard Gaston and Bruno Manzardo, Antioch, will make its debut in Illinois waters after having taken two firsts at Muscatine, Ia., Sunday.

Babe Amacher's Tweek-It which has been in continuous hard luck, having caught fire in Sunday's race at Muscatine, will be entered.

The outboards will have their own competition Sunday and the races should prove interesting.

Chicago Cub Players Don't Do Bad at Fishing This Week At Haling's on Grass Lake

Chuck Haling's resort on Grass lake is a popular fishing place for members of the Chicago Cubs baseball team who take advantage of every off day to come out to the resort.

On Monday and Tuesday of this week Coach Red Smith, Pitcher Emil Kusch and wife, left fielder Peanuts Lowry and wife, and Bill Gregori were out for bluegill and bass fishing. The Haling children Eddie, Chuckie, Anita and Margie acted as guides and took them to where the fish were really biting.

Smith, Kusch and Lowry together caught 17 bass. "Peanuts" caught the largest a four and one-half pounder; Kusch was a close second with 4 1/2, and Smith third with one weighing 3 3/4 pounds. Gregori did nothing but still fishing but got the limit in bluegills.

Charlie Grim, Andy Pafko, Eddie Waitkus and others who usually do their fishing there, had to attend the all-star game and couldn't come.

Firemen's Dance Profitable

The firemen's dance was largely attended and the profits were good according to the report made at their meeting Tuesday evening.

Lake Villa Men's Club Arranges Weekly Shows For Children, Adults

The Lake Villa Community Men's club is providing weekly entertainment for both young and adults at the grade school building at Grand Ave. and Milwaukee Ave.

The programs are on Saturday nights, starting at 8 o'clock, and for the youngsters there will be full-length movies, mostly Western thrillers with short subjects. Members of the club will be in charge, Lester Hamlin, president, said.

For adults who leave their children at the show there will be special entertainment of the same type which proved so popular in the past, Hamlin said. There will be new equipment for the adult program.

Chain O' Lakes Region Council to First Seek County Health Board

Acting on the suggestion of Thomas Philbin, Woodstock assistant state sanitary engineer under the Illinois Health and Water Board, the Chain O' Lakes Region council last Friday evening decided as one of its first objects to obtain a county health department.

Philbin, the guest speaker, said that the council by acting through a county health department could get much aid from the state in making the lake region more healthful. He said that the state is handicapped by the lack of a county unit to work through.

The council is seeking to rid the lakes of pollution.

The organization adopted by-laws and appointed E. O. Johnson of Deep Lake as chairman of a committee to nominate officers at the Aug. 6 meeting for their election in September.

The council has been holding its meeting in the Lake Villa village hall.

Feyerabend Purchases Breakstone Lots for 2 New Business Buildings

Expects to Get Franchise For Popular New Car Agency Soon

Amiel Leo Feyerabend, owner of the Antioch Used Car Co., has purchased ground adjacent to his Main st., building from Dr. I. L. Breakstone and expects to construct two new buildings there.

At the same time Mr. Feyerabend announced that he soon expects to have the franchise for a popular make car and if the transaction takes place he expects to expand his present business.

First of the contemplated new buildings is a one-story building 28 x 60 which will be built at the rear of the former Breakstone property. This will house six cars and will be used as a body and paint department. He hopes to start work on the building in 60 or 80 days.

During the fall he anticipates putting up a building at the front of the 66-foot lot. This building will be one story but will be so constructed that one or two more stories can be added if desired. It will be built along lines of his new used car building which is of block and brick facing.

The front building 50x75 feet will be so constructed that the place can be used as one room for a department store or divided into two or three rooms for smaller stores as any renter should desire.

Commenting on his prospective new car agency, Mr. Feyerabend said he will be able to engage a service manager now in charge of a 20-man agency in northside Chicago and will be able to set up a complete and efficient service garage.

The total frontage of the Feyerabend property on Main st., will be 173 feet and will add much to Main streets rapidly growing and imposing business district.

Give Wedding Present

A wedding gift of a white blanket was presented to Miss Virginia Gaa by members of Rainbow for Girls last Monday night at their regular meeting. Afterwards the girls gave Virginia, the bride to be, many suggestions. Refreshments were served by Norma Jarnigo, Elsie Farnsworth, Jean Hardin and Annette Garner.

Antioch Area Residents Winners in Farm-City Contests, Held Wed.

Betty J. McDougall Second For Farm Queen, Crowd Hurt by Weather

Antioch was well represented at the Farm-City picnic at Gages Lake yesterday afternoon both in numbers and in prize winners.

Betty Jean McDougall, one of the most attractive girls there, was second in the contest for the farm queen, losing to Joyce McGaughey, Gurnee, daughter of George McGaughey, the Antioch village attorney. Betty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McDougall, received several gifts of merchandise. There were 16 contestants.

Another Antioch winner was Mrs. William Richards who outcalled the other women in the cattle calling contest.

Logan Lundgren got a red ribbon in the senior yearling heifer class of the Black and White (Holstein) show.

LeRoy Wegener of Ingleside won first in boys showmanship and received the Abbott cup which he may keep if he wins again next year. His father, Otto, was a twice winner in another class and carried away two cups for the showing of Holstein cattle.

Threatening weather reduced the crowd this year under last year but the program was a good one.

Other contest winners were: Oldest married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kane, of Mundelein, married Jan. 14, 1892. Mr. and Mrs. John Rook of Grayslake married three months later.

Oldest woman present, Mrs. Helen O'Neill of Libertyville, aged 80 yrs. Newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lynch, Gurnee married four days.

Largest family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quigley, 15th St., Green Bay Rd., near Waukegan, nine children between the ages of 2 and 13 (one set of twins).

Husband calling contest, Mrs. Melvin Sinnett, Barrington.

In the girls showmanship contest of the Black and White show, Marian Wirtz, Volo, won the cup permanently, while Marie Fink, Wauconda, and Betty Sword, Round Lake, were second and third respectively.

Miss Wirtz, Miss Fink, LeRoy Wegener, and Floyd Hutchings of Mundelein, winner of second place in the boys contest, will go to Elgin Saturday to take part in a regional contest.

With Holiday Award Yet to Be Reported, Rodeo Prizes Reach 57

With the July Fourth weekend results still to be recorded, the first three weeks of the Illinois Fishing Rodeo has resulted in 57 winners in the Chicago area alone, it was announced by the Department of Conservation.

Four extra "first" prizes were announced.

First woman to catch a tagged fish, Mrs. Roberta Bush, Hillside st., Fox Lake, whose bluegill caught on a worm in Fox Lake, wins for her a hand-painted silk blouse donated by H. and M. Frick, Chicago designers.

First man to catch a tagged fish, William J. Masear, Lake Zurich.

First girl to catch a tagged fish, Delores Reichert, 14, 3816 Glendening, Downers Grove.

First boy to catch a tagged fish, Victor Niemec, 13, 3901 Douglas, Downers Grove.

Winners of the imposing gold trophies posted by Gov. Dwight H. Green and Director Livingston E. Osborne of the Conservation Department are expected to be announced next week. All the above "first" awards are in addition to the winner's other prizes already presented for the tagged fish according to tag numbers.

New prize winners this week, with the awards they received, are: Lake Marie—William Zettke, 837 E. 61st St., Chicago, casting rod from Channel Lake Boat House; Joseph W. Slička, 2422 Cuyler, Berwyn, a casting rod from "Bud" Holtz, Antioch.

Carnival Was Success

The American Legion reported a successful carnival and that receipts will be more than last year. Satisfactory weather prevailed and there were good crowds every night.

Lake County Fair to Be Tented City Housing All Exhibits and 4-H Show

The 1948 Lake County fair will look like a tented city to the thousands who are planning to attend this year, according to Ray T. Nicholas, Lake county farm adviser. More than 70,000 square feet of tents will be required to cover the many exhibits at the twentieth annual exposition to be held at Memorial Field, Libertyville, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 6, 7 and 8.

The directors of the Fair Association are doing everything possible to provide one of the biggest and best fairs in the history of Lake County. Everything is being done to make the 1948 fair an outstanding attraction for the thousands of guests. Present indications are that the 1948 attendance will top all previous records.

According to William Chandler, president of the Fair Association, there will be over 500 feet of exhibits by business and commercial institutions of Lake County. In addition, both the North Shore Gas Company and the Public Service Company will each have huge tents on the grounds for exhibits and demonstrations.

Outstanding Livestock Display
A large number of livestock raisers of Lake County are planning to exhibit their animals at the County Show. Fair visitors will see some of the outstanding animals of the various breeds of livestock selected from Lake County's top herds. Lake County is recognized as having some of the best livestock in the entire country. Some of last year's champion purple ribbon winners will be in the show ring to defend their titles.

Huge 4-H Club Show

More than 600 home economics and agricultural 4-H club members will be at the fair with their projects, representing the best that young rural Lake county can produce. An entire tent will cover exhibits, booths and displays of the 4-H club girls, while two mammoth tents will shelter the best in beef cattle, dairy cattle, swine and rabbits, garden exhibits, flower arrangements that the future farmers have to offer.

Fox Lake Legion Plans New Home and Contest

John Horan spoke before the American Legion at Fox Lake last evening explaining the procedures in setting up a Legion home. The Fox Lake post is planning to build or buy a home and club house.

Arrangements were also made at this meeting for a membership contest between the Antioch and Fox Lake posts. Last year Fox Lake won but this year the World War II veterans of Antioch say they are not going to be caught asleep as they were last year and are going to drink beer at the expense of the Grant township boys.

Township Collectors Get Books; Bill Next Week

John Horan, Antioch township tax collector, received his books from County Clerk Jay B. Morse yesterday and expects to have the bills in the mail in about a week. Printing and filling are yet to be done.

All townships received their books yesterday except Lake Villa and Newport where there are no collectors. In their cases Treasurer Guy O. Lunn will serve as collector in sending out statements.

Airport Hearing Attracts Twelve to Chicago Today

Twelve residents of Antioch community were in attendance at a hearing of the Illinois Aeronautical authority today to help determine the suitability of the Tiffany farm for an airport site.

Bruce Artis, who originally filed the petition for approval of the land as an airport, was supported by Clarence Speiring, owner of the land, in his contention that the airport would prove of benefit to the community. Artis mentioned that the petition called for the maintenance of a class one airport, with hangars, and later school facilities, as well as commuter service to and from Chicago.

Granting of the permit for the airport was opposed by a delegation of owners of property near the site. Among those who made the trip to protest the placing of the airport here were Mrs. W. W. Warriner, representing Warriner's subdivision, Mrs. Ray Benish, president of Felter's subdivision; Henry Paulsen of Felter's subdivision and Lester Knott of Warriner's subdivision. A petition carrying the names of more than 100 residents was also placed in evidence.

Mr. Don Blodgett, assistant director of the Illinois aeronautical authority, acted as director of the hearing and Wm. Griffin, also connected with the authority acted as referee. Present also was Ed Gauden, state area aviation inspector for this area. At the conclusion of the hearing Blodgett said that an order either approving or disapproving the petition would be released within two weeks.

It was learned that in cases where the board of aeronautics feels that the installation of an airport will be of advantage to a majority of the residents of a given community a permit is issued regardless of protests of adjoining property owners, although this is exceptional and the request is usually denied.

Antioch Wins Shutout Over New Munster 4-0; To Play Wilmot Sunday

Ray Bushing pitched a four hit shutout for the Antioch V. F. W. team last Sunday against the New Munster nine on their diamond.

While Bushing was pitching his shutout the Antioch boys got fourteen hits and sixteen runs off J. Kerkman and Elverman, ten of them going for extra bases.

B. Schneider hit a home run with two men on in the first inning and Glen Fox got a home run in the third inning with one man on. H. Ellis and B. Schneider each got a triple while Bushing, Crandall, Palenski, Schneider doubled and G. Fox a pair of doubles.

Next Sunday, July 18th, Wilmot will play Antioch a return game here. The game will commence at 2:30 p. m. at the local Antioch High school diamond.

Wilmot will be out to avenge that 10 to 11 defeat the local boys gave them last June 13, and this should be a very interesting game.

Robert Arthur Ill

Robert Arthur, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Arthur was injured Sunday while swimming at Channel lake. On Monday he was taken to the Condell Memorial hospital at Libertyville where he is in a serious condition suffering from an abscess of the leg and other complications.

SHORT STORY

A Home For Young Dan

By MAUDE NORMAN

ALONG the highway trudged a girl. Cradled in her left arm was a blanket-wrapped bundle. From her right hand swung a heavy suitcase.

A car braked to a stop as she paused to rest. "Want a ride?" the driver called.

The man opened the car door, taking the suitcase from her hand. "Say, that weighs a ton!" he exclaimed. "Don't tell me that's a baby you've got there."

"I'm going to my husband's people. They're really not his own people, but they raised him."

"How come they're letting you walk? It's none of my business," seeing her quick flush, "but a fellow can wonder, can't he?"

"They don't know I'm coming," she said. "But I had no other place to go and I thought they might let me stay and work for my board. I want my baby to grow up in the country where he can see things growing, instead of being cooped up in one room in the city."

"That's rich. You're leaving the city for the country and I'm doing just the opposite."

"You mean you're leaving all this," her hand indicated the green fields they were passing.

He laughed harshly. "Looks pretty, doesn't it? But there's a lot of hard work goes with it."

"You work hard in a city too."

"Sure—but you know where you're at. Here, you work your head off, then a freeze comes along or a hail storm or something and all your hard work is gone. I used to have great plans about what I would do on my farm when I got out of the service. Say, what's the matter with him? Is he sick?" as a loud wail issued from the blanket.

"No, he's cold and wet and hungry—and—" her voice broke, "so am I, hungry, I mean."

With an annoyed exclamation he turned the car around. "I didn't intend going back," he scowled, "but I can't stand having that poor little tyke cry like that."

"Where are you going?" she asked, hushing the baby.

"Back to the farm—to give you a chance to take care of the baby and rest a bit yourself. You needn't be afraid, my aunt and uncle are there."

"I'm not afraid," she retorted. "You look just like a picture my husband had of a buddy of his, only your hair isn't red as his must have been, because Dan always called him 'Red'." She smiled. "He was always talking about his wonderful Red."

The car almost went into the ditch. "Say, what's your husband's name?"

"Dan Webster."

"Well, I'll be darned! No wonder your face is familiar. You're Sally! Dan had a picture of you he was always showing me. So you're Sally! What d'ya know!"

"You're not—"

"Sure, I'm Red. The fellows called me that because my face gets red so easily—Say—where is old Dan? We lost sight of each other when he was sent to the Pacific and I was kept in France. Why are you alone? He's not—?"

She nodded.

Red was silent until they had turned into the driveway of a pleasant old farm house. "Here we are," he said cheerfully, getting out. "Take care of young Dan and I'll have Aunt Sarah fix you a lunch of those eggs and that milk you were talking about."

"And you're leaving all this," she breathed, "for the city."

"Nope, I've changed my mind. I guess all that was wrong with me was, I was lonesome. I've been thinking, Dan was my best friend and I don't believe he'd mind me taking care of his wife and baby—that is, if she's willing. How about it, Sally? I know it's a crazy thing to ask. But somehow, I think Dan would rather you stay here and help Aunt Sarah than go to those slave-drivers. And who knows what will happen in a year or so. After all, young Dan will need a father. I think you'll like it here, Sally."

Sally raised misty blue eyes. "Yes, I think Dan would be pleased," she said softly.

LAKE VILLA

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet on Wednesday, July 21, with its president, Mrs. Boyer at her home for the quarterly pot luck dinner and celebration of the April, May and June birthdays. Those not having birthdays are asked to bring salads or cold foods as hamburgers and frankfurts will be cooked on the grill. Visitors are very welcome. There should be a good attendance to hear the reports on the recent white elephant sale and bazaar.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Community church will hold a meeting at the church next Sunday evening followed by a "Treasure Hunt" which is always fun for the young people.

The Sunday school has sponsored camp life for a number of pupils for attendance again this year, and Philip Wagner, Jackie Martin, Elmer Oelker and Donna Reidel spent last week at the Camp at Long Lake. Ann Mattson and Pat Kelleher were at the Lake Geneva camp last week and Jill Mahoney, Karen and Donna Martin, June Meyer, Lois Leocher and Arlene Hansen are at Lake Geneva this week, with expenses being paid fully or in part by the church school.

The Angola Cemetery Association will sponsor a public card party at the Village hall on Wednesday evening, July 28, for the benefit of the Association. All popular games will be played, prizes and refreshments.

Sky Lane Ranch, south of the village is open to the public and for those who like horseback riding, makes a pleasant vacation spot.

The new Hucker building on Cedar Ave., is beginning to assume imposing proportions. It is constructed of brick and cement blocks, and is 70 feet by 100 ft. It will have a large show room for display of cars besides an office and space for repair of cars.

Miss Marguerite Pierce, of Joliet, was a guest at the Frank Hamlin home on Monday.

A. L. Jennings, who has been on a business trip to Kentucky, came Friday to spend a few days with his wife and son at the Frank Hamlin home, and left Monday evening for his home and business in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bennecke are visiting Mrs. Bennecke's people at Clam Lake, Wis. for two weeks.

Mrs. Lulu Nelson spent last Thursday and Friday with her son, William and family at Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Fish and son, Jimmie, were in Milwaukee on business last Monday. Mr. Fish is on vacation and they spent the greater part of last week with the Will Fish family near Wauconda.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Botts and son attended the annual Botts family reunion and picnic at Tourist park at Woodstock last Sunday and 47 relatives were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nickerson, Russell and Donna spent the first of the week with relatives at Galena and Elizabeth, Ill.

On Friday, July 2, at the Methodist parsonage in Waukegan, Carl Miller, Jr., was united in marriage to Miss Shirley Caldwell of Grayslake by Rev. Pender. Carl is the son of Carl Miller, Sr., of Lake Villa, served some time in World War II, and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Caldwell, of Grayslake. The young couple has bought the Natiolet property in Oak Knoll subdivision and will be at home to their friends there soon.

Mrs. Haley, Sr., of Chicago, is the guest of her son, Arthur Haley and wife at their home at Petite Lake

Highlands.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennecke, Sr., have sold their property to Mr. and Mrs. Market, of Chicago, who have already taken possession and are living there. In the meantime the Bennecke family has moved to their new home in Villa Woods, which has been under construction for some time and which is now being decorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Barnstable accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Griffin, of Libertyville enjoyed a trip south into Tennessee where they visited interesting places last week during Lloyd's vacation and Joan Barnstable stayed with her

Gambling Losses Spur Draftsman To Take His Life

Horse Player Gets Sore Neck After Five Attempts To Die in Car

CROSSVILLE, TENN.—A despondent draftsman from Waukegan, Ill., abashedly confessed to police that he was unable to kill himself after a fruitless hunt for death during a bizarre cross-country motor tour in his automobile.

He told what State Patrolman Charles Johnson called "a fantastic story" of seeking suicide on a cross-country motor tour.

"I wanted to make it look like an accident so my wife could collect my insurance," Johnson quoted him.

"Four or five times" since he left Waukegan, Hassart said he tried to end his life.

He drove recklessly. He speeded on hairpin curves. He passed on hills. He tried to race trains to a dead heat at crossings. Nothing happened.

What capped Hassart's failure actually was "more or less of an accident," he said.

Slips Off Embankment

His car slipped off a 70-foot embankment. The car landed upside down in a tree, with Hassart still in it.

He climbed out and to his amazement couldn't find a real scratch on him.

Disgusted, he hid in the woods. Meanwhile, authorities sought "the victim" of the car found dangling on the tree, seven miles from here.

Hassart went to a farmer's house, slept overnight there and called Crossville police.

His decision to commit suicide, he said, stemmed from a number of reasons—mostly horses—of which he ramblingly spoke.

He had been a draftsman, he said, until he was named administrator of the estates of two of his relatives who died about four years ago.

Plays Horses

Then he became a horse player, and carried on a stamp collecting business on the side. He did well at horse betting, too—for a while. He used what he called "a comic strip" system.

The system collapsed shortly. Also, he said, a friend who owned a stable kept giving him bum tips.

Finally, he was down to his last $23. He told his wife he was going on a business trip.

Crossville police sent Hassart to Uplands sanatorium here. Doctors said he could be released any time because his only injury was a possible sore neck.

Maharaja Embarks on Huge Game Hunt—for Gem Thief

NEW DELHI, INDIA.—The Maharaja of Bilhka, who has a reputation for his prowess as a big game hunter, now is trailing his biggest prey yet—a thief who stole 400 jeweled headresses.

For years the maharaja, Darbar Shree Ravatwala Sahab, has collected jeweled turbans from Cairo to Singapore. He wears six a day in succession—one at breakfast, another when dictating, a third at the audience he grants his prime minister, a fourth during his afternoon stroll, a fifth at dinner, and a particularly resplendent sixth on his nocturnal visit to the "chief queen." In his palace he has literally roomfuls of turbans.

Some unbelievably reckless Bilhka native purloined 400 of these headresses—a feat about comparable to walking out of Alcatraz. Now the heat is on in earnest, and every one of the maharaja's 45,000 subjects has been or will be given a searching third degree. Several hundred natives are under arrest as suspects. The maharaja, meanwhile, threatens confiscatory taxes unless his prized turbans are returned pronto and intact.

Celebrants at Zulu Wedding Slay 10 in Tribal Dispute

MTUNZINI, SOUTH AFRICA.—Because Chief Sipo and his men said the beer was cheap and there wasn't enough to eat at the wedding feast of one of his warriors, a vicious tribal war started.

Men of Chief Sipo's tribe were not pleased when one of their warriors arranged to marry a girl in the rival native village of Chief Musithingwe. And the girl's family felt that she was marrying beneath her station.

Musithingwe's warriors retorted that some of the cattle handed over as the bridegroom's dowry were diseased.

Sipo's men went back to their village for spears, battle axes and shields. They returned, fired the grass above the wedding village—the traditional Zulu warning of attack—and advanced upon the village. Three hundred men fought for two hours. When they drew apart at sundown, 10 were dead, including Sipo's brother, and scores were injured seriously.

Smashed Slot Machine Coughs Up a Jackpot

SALISBURY, MD.—William C. Ziegler found a smashed-up slot machine on a Salisbury street. He took it home and called the police. While waiting, he poked around and found three quarters in the smashed coin receptacle. The police told him to keep it, it was just a heap of junk. Ziegler played with the "junk" a little longer. Out came the jackpot—$10.25. Also one slug.

'Farewell Rite' Is Marriage Ceremony

Navy Commander Annals Japanese Wedding On Return to U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Frederick T. Ebersole, a former navy commander who said he unwittingly went through a Shinto wedding ceremony with a red-haired army intelligence assistant while stationed in Tokyo, had the "marriage" annulled.

Ebersole, 34, a socially prominent San Francisco chain store executive said he thought the ritual was a Japanese farewell ceremony. But his "bride," Elizabeth Church, in Seattle, had the elaborate scroll presented her after the ceremony translated. It was a Shinto marriage certificate.

"Miss Church told me she wanted her name cleared, so I went to a lawyer and had the 'marriage' annulled," Ebersole explained.

Ebersole, who has a wife and three children, said he and Miss Church had become interested in Shinto customs while in Japan. He was separated from his wife at the time, he said. They have been reconciled since the war.

Ebersole said he and Miss Church had received orders to come home at about the same time. A Japanese friend told him he had arranged "a beautiful Japanese going away ceremony for us," Ebersole said.

The ceremony was conducted in the friend's house by a Shinto priest in flowing oriental robes and conical hat.

"He was mumbling words that we could not understand," Ebersole said. "Attendants were playing on flutes and sounding brass gongs. We just stood there. Then the priest handed Miss Church what looked like a mimeographed piece of paper with Japanese characters on it. I didn't know what it said."

Ebersole added that he and Miss Church then returned to their respective quarters.

Ebersole's wife said she would accept the explanation.

Veleda Edlmann Is Bride of F. Ambacher

The Rev. Fr. F. M. Flaherty heard the marriage vows of Miss Veleda Edlmann, daughter of Mrs. Marie Edlmann, of Antioch, and Frank Ambacher in ceremonies at St. Peter's church July 10. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Ambacher, of Fox Lake.

The bride chose for her wedding a gown of white net, satin and lace with floor length veil, her flowers were sweet peas and roses. Her attendants were Mrs. Frieda Koenig, matron of honor and Mrs. Margaret Stropperka, bridesmaid. Their gowns were floor length made of yellow crepe, they carried sweet peas and roses. Simon Edlmann, brother of the bride was best man, assistant attendant was Joe Fnohek.

Mrs. Edlmann wore a blue print with white accessories and Mrs. Ambacher wore navy print, their flowers were carnations.

Mrs. Arthur McGreal played the organ and sang Ave Maria. A reception for two hundred guests was held at St. Bede's church following the ceremony. Guests from out of town included Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Welker, of Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. J. Weiner, of Aurora; and Mr. and Mrs. F. Moser, of Milwaukee.

The newlyweds left for a two weeks wedding trip to Iowa, after which they will be at home in Fox Lake.

The groom is a graduate of Grant Community High school and is employed at Waukegan Steel. Mrs. Ambacher is employed at Pickard Inc.

The Charles Hostetters Have Pleasant Trip West, Visit Relatives, Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hostetter of North Ave., have returned from California where they visited their son, Charles Hostetter and daughter, Mrs. Leona Doerr and family. The Doerrs own their home in Azusa, Calif., and the son, Charles lives with them. The trip was a pleasant experience. Mrs. Hostetter has a sister and two nephews in Pasadena, Calif. She had not seen her sister and brother for 11 years.

While in California the Hostetters had the opportunity of visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde McLain and son. Mrs. McLain was formerly Shirley Hennings.

The Hostetter family made a trip into Mexico. They were accompanied west by Mrs. Helen Pfeifle, formerly Helen Hostetter, and her family, Glenn Pfeifle and daughters Elizabeth and Barbara.

4-H ANTIOCH ACORNS HOLD MEETING

The Antioch Acorns 4-H club held their seventh meeting Monday afternoon at the Antioch Grade school. The first part of the meeting was devoted to business and review work, the following part of the meeting was spent in folk dancing and other recreation. The next meeting will be held Tuesday, July 20 at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berg left Tuesday for their home in Arlington, Va., after spending their vacation with Mr. Berg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berg.

Mr. Berg is employed in government service at Washington, D. C.

Miss Dolly Ries, 17, of 267 Park ave., is entered in the lyric soprano division of the News-Sun music festival at Waukegan Aug. 1. Winners at the festival will go to the music festival in Chicago. She is a senior in the Antioch High school and has appeared in radio programs.

Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin, of Paducah, Kentucky, Mrs. Willis Russell, of southern Illinois, and Carl Russell, of Waukegan, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Franklin at their Petite Lake home last week.

Mrs. Mollie Sommerville who has been in Victory Memorial hospital for the past week returned home Tuesday evening.

ANNOUNCE BIRTH OF DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Peterson, 6047 37th Ave., Kenosha, announce the birth of a baby daughter, "Janice Mary", born July 2. Mrs. Peterson before her marriage was Miss Ardis Toft, the daughter of Peter Toft of Antioch.

PARENTS OF SON

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Smock are the parents of a son "Donald Curtis", born Saturday, July 10 at Victory Memorial hospital. Mrs. Smock before her marriage was Miss Gert-rude Horton, daughter of Joseph Horton of Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Runyard, who have been living at Bristol, Wisconsin for the past two years, have purchased a home on Spafford street and have moved to Antioch to make their future home.

Methodist Youth Attend Conference This Week At Lake Geneva Camp

Conference Point, Lake Geneva, Wis (Special)—More than 400 intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship-shippers are gathered here at beautiful Conference Point on the shores of Lake Geneva for a week-long conference. The delegates are from the Chicago area of the Methodist Church with a limited number from each church.

Nancy Thompson of Antioch was elected Sunday evening to the Student Council of the Conference, and to the job of choir librarian. All of the ten Antioch young people attending the Conference are members of the choir which sings at the vesper service each evening. Wednesday was "Frosh Day" at the conference and all of the young people who are attending the Conference for the first time must wear an "F" on their forehead throughout the day.

Rev. Tuttle and a group of seven intermediate boys from Antioch visited the Conference Wednesday afternoon and evening. The boys making the trip were Lauris Burdick, Bill Deering, Harold Wilson, David Petty Bruce and Fred Stahmer, and Bob Wilton. They joined the conference in a cruise on Lake Geneva, afternoon recreation, and the evening vesper service.

Ask Antioch Women to Volunteer for Gray Lady Service at Great Lakes

North Lake County Chapter, American Red Cross, needs many volunteers for Gray Ladies service. Mrs. Louis Diamond, chairman of volunteer services of the chapter, announced today. The Gray Ladies will be trained at Great Lakes and will also work there, she said. Each volunteer should be able to give one day a week or its equivalent in time.

Registration may be made by calling Mrs. Harry J. Krueger, Tel. 126-W or chapter headquarters secure application forms and additional information. Age requirements are from 21 to 45 years. High school education or its equivalent are asked. Classes started Monday, July 12, 9 a. m. at chapter headquarters.

Gray Ladies who have been training but have not been active lately, are invited to return. Short refresher courses will be given. Volunteers who have had no previous training will be fully instructed in the course they will take at the naval center, where they will assist Mary Jean Clark, Red Cross, field director.

Gray Ladies duties will include personal bedside visits with patients, reading, games, shopping, simple craft work, assisting with recreation and hobbies.

Mrs. Diamond hopes that volunteers will respond from all parts of the chapter area.

"Great Lakes gives so generously to the Red Cross each year that we must carry our end of service to patients there," she explained. "To do this, Mrs. Diamond continued, "we need many, many more volunteers. Ladies may give an afternoon or an evening to the work, she added. It isn't necessary that they give the full day required at one time. We will train new volunteers and we will welcome all former Gray Ladies."

'Bombing Scheme' Alerts New York For Explosions

Crank Threatens to Explode Dynamite Charges in City at Rush Hour

NEW YORK.—A scrawled plan for destroying communications in Manhattan by means of more than 150 rush hour bomb explosions put strategic parts of the borough under heavy guard for three hours.

The plan was believed to be the work of a crank when it was found by postal employees but it was sufficiently detailed to cause the police to take no chances.

Patrolmen, detectives, specialists of the bomb squad and of the fire department bureau of combustibles swarmed into Grand Central and Pennsylvania terminals. Times square, the general post office on 8th avenue and subway, tube and ferry terminals and stations. Eleven police emergency squads stood by. Fireboats were alerted, and seven police launches inspected the abutments of bridges, and in some instances followed ferryboats, as a safeguard.

Besides the rail terminals, Times square, and the postoffice, places specifically marked for explosions included the subway tubes leading to Brooklyn, the Hudson and Manhattan tubes to New Jersey, and the Battery terminal of the Staten Island ferry. In the case of the last objective the "plan" envisaged destruction of three ferryboats by means of trucks loaded with high explosives.

Consists of Five Sheets

Contained in a plain, unaddressed and unstamped envelope, the "plan" consisted of five sheets of lined paper, apparently from a loose leaf notebook. Each sheet bore a heading giving the number of the plan, and continuing:

"Five to five-fifteen. D-day. Vodka 3-3-48."

Each sheet carried a diagram or sketch of the area affected.

"Plan No. 1" began with a diagram of the post office. The text read:

"Twenty-five men and women aboard train one hour before train is due in. Suitcases with new high explosive bombs. Leave suitcases on platform, mingle with crowd and vanish. Meet at HQ."

Plan No. 2

Plan No. 2 relating to Times square, read:

"Fifty men and women in crowd. Rush hour. Leave suitcases of high explosives on platform. Vanish. Surprise element is decisive factor."

"Plan No. 3" with diagrams of Grand Central terminal read: "Same as Pennsylvania railroad." "Plan No. 4" showed a diagram of the Battery area around the barge office, including the slip of the St. George (Staten Island) ferry, with three ferries shown near by. After the heading, the "plan" read:

"Rush hour. Twenty-seven trucks load in New York side St. George ferry. Drivers drive truck on ferry. Vanish without attracting attention. Blows up in water and sinks without evidence."

A diagram of the Brooklyn-Manhattan subway tubes accompanied "Plan No. 5." The text read:

"Ten people in three groups. Enter with explosives. Get off at South Ferry."

This was taken to mean that the explosives were to be dropped in the tunnels. A note added:

"Same plan for H & M tubes."

Storekeeper Rout Bandit With Well-Aimed Bottles

JOHNSTOWN, PA. — Pop Karlinsey packs a mean pop bottle. At least one thug has good proof of the 58-year-old storekeeper's aim. Pop, otherwise known as J. D. Karlinsey, owns a general store on the Johnstown-Ebensburg road. A man entered the place and announced:

"This is a holdup."

Karlinsey, walking toward the cash register, stooped and grabbed an empty pop bottle, whirled and threw it in the same motion. It caught the robber on the head.

The thug turned and ran. As he reached the door another bottle crashed through the window just by his head.

"My sights weren't quite adjusted to that distance," Pop said.

Boy, 7, Waits One Week For Dead Granny to Rise

NEW YORK.—When a policeman forced his way into a strangely silent Queens house, a thin, 7-year-old boy in pajamas collapsed in his arms.

"Granny went to bed and didn't wake up," the boy weakly told Charles Horn, patrolman.

"Granny" was identified by police as Mrs. Tilly Borman, 70, who had been dead in bed about a week.

The boy, Murray Green, told police he had eaten buns and milk for a week. Apparently he had slept in the dead woman's bed.

Murray knew nothing about his parents except that his mother was sick. Police said Mrs. Borman had been granted care of the boy by the Jewish Child Care association of New York.

Freddie Hawkins, 24-year-old Antioch pro, cools off with a drink of water while John Barnum, Chicago amateur, waits after they fired five-under-par 67's in the opening round of the recent Feoria Open golf tournament. Hawkins, hailed as one of the game's coming professional stars, cashed in the $5,000 Feoria classic and also won prize money last week in the Columbus Open. The Antioch boy, whose parents operate the Chain O' Lakes Country club, shot a 70 in the opening round of the Columbus tourney, which was won by Lloyd Mangrum. Jossie and Jennie Loescher, Sisters in Charge of Salem Postoffice, Retire

The Misses Jossie and Jennie Loescher, twin sisters, retired July 1 as postmaster and clerk respectively of the Salem postoffice after having served the village 33 years.

Acting postmaster M. E. Radtitz his retirement from the postoffice of Salem took charge until a permanent postmaster can be selected through civil service examination.

The Misses Loescher have been life-long residents of Salem. They are the daughters of the late Mathias and Isabelle Minnis Loescher. Their father operated a general store in the village and served as postmaster for many years. Upon his death she succeeded him. She has served since May 15, 1915.

From the Loescher general store, now the Weidman grocery the postoffice was moved to a small building on the property owned by the Loescher sisters. It serves an area reaching from the Bristol town line to Rock Lake near Antioch.

During Miss Loescher's term the office has risen from a fourth class to a third office. The mail has grown from a daily delivery of one bundle which the carrier delivered in a one-horse buggy, to two routes on which at times it is necessary to make the route in sections, making extra trips to carry the load.

Milward W. Bloss has been carrier since 1929 and Miss Alice M. Hope is substitute carrier.

The whooping crane is nearly as tall as a man, and is fast disappearing. Only about 30 such cranes remain of the vast armies of birds that once traversed the Mississippi valley.

Allendale Graduate Wins Honor in Germany With Power Model Airplane

Wiesbaden, Germany.—Cpl. Fred J. Lambert, Jr., of Waukegan and the 18th Base post office unit in Wiesbaden, has turned out to be quite a model plane enthusiast since his arrival in this largest of the overseas air bases in September 1946.

Lambert, who is a member of the Wiesbaden Model Plane club, won second place in a recent EUCOM model meet held at Oberpfaffenhofen, Germany. Seventy-five participants watched Lambert's model—a powered high-wing Class B job, stay aloft in record time for the honors in his class.

Cpl. Lambert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lambert, Sr., of Route 1, Green Bay Rd., Waukegan. He has been in Service since November 1945. A graduate of Allendale school at Lake Villa, he was employed as a US Mail Carrier before enlisting.

July 31 Last Date for War II Vets to Renew Insurance Without Exam

Last chance for Illinois World War II veterans to reinstate National Service Life Insurance without a physical examination will be on July 31.

At present a statement by the veteran saying his health is as good as when the policy lapsed and payment of two month premiums are all that is required to reinstate.

A veteran may reinstate term insurance or convert to any of six plans including 20 year endowment and endowment at age of 60 or 65. Conversion to more than one plan is permissible if the total amount does not exceed $10,000.

Because there are no administration expenses paid from premiums, National Service Life Insurance costs less than any other comparable insurance and has received endorsement of all the leading insurance companies in the United States.

Information and assistance in reinstating lapsed insurance can be secured at any one of the 142 field offices of the Illinois Veterans commission.

In Lake county the office is located at American Legion Home in Waukegan.

Libertyville Announces Second N. E. I. Softball Tournament for Sept. 3

The Libertyville Community club announced today that the second annual Northeastern Illinois softball tournament will be staged under the lights at Memorial Field in Libertyville Sept. 3-11.

Last year an entry of 35 towns sought places in the 16-team classic. The winner was the North Shore Foundry of Waukegan. Applications for the tournament should be filed prior to August 6 with the Libertyville Community Club, c/o Ralph Giss, Libertyville, Ill. Only 12 inch, uniformed softball teams are eligible and clubs will be permitted to use only players that were on their roster prior to Aug. 6.

After the applications are received the Community Club will announce the selections of the 16 teams. A won and loss record for the current season should also be inclosed.

The tournament is strictly amateur and first and second place winners will be given very large and beautiful trophies plus individual team photographs to each player of the championship club.

Memorial Field is a new and modern lighted softball diamond and one of the finest in northeastern Illinois. Adequate seating, a press box, loud speaker system, and one of the most modern scoreboards are some of the field's features.

New Process Produces Oils From Discarded Grape Seeds

TROY, N. Y.—If you've ever wondered what to do with old grape seeds here's one answer.

Valuable utility oil may be extracted from discarded grape seeds and employed in the manufacture of such products as soap, plastics, lubricating oil, salad dressing, awnings and even airplane wings, according to Dr. Frederick W. Schwartz, professor of analytical chemistry at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. Schwartz explained that the more than 15 million pounds of grape seeds thrown away annually by the grape industry in America should be salvaged and processed for important oils.

In fact, he pointed out, grape seed oil may eventually be used as a substitute for linseed oil, which is fast dwindling in supply.

The grape oil, when applied to surfaces of awnings and metal airplane wings, improves the pliability of such products, he stated.

"We are now suffering from a shortage of fats," Dr. Schwartz said, "yet we throw away large supplies of excellent waste material. The grape seeds contain from 6 to 20 per cent of oil, which can be cheaply extracted for only 5 or 6 cents per pound. Furthermore, the seeds abound in food content usable for cattle feed."

Election Losers Discover Brush With Law Costs $$$

DELAVER, WIS.—Painting the town with their protests over defeat of their candidate for mayor had an unhappy ending for six young Delavan veterans of World War II.

Police Chief Harold Barker said the six had used white lead to paint "Let us forget" on the street in front of the home of the re-elected mayor and council president. Three went on to daub paint on windows of a garage and lumber company and on a $3,800 automobile, Barker said.

The latter three—Meredith Knillans, Joe Murphy and John Atwood—were fined $25 each on disorderly conduct charges by Justice of the Peace Roy Meracle and were ordered to pay for damages to the car. Meracle ordered James Watts, Darwin Tucker and Jack Fabricius released because they took part only in the street painting.

The veterans had supported Eugene Williamson, a veteran, who was defeated by Mayor John Thorpe, 942 to 553. Clarence Anderson, owner of the garage and car which were painted, had backed Thorpe.

Science Shatters Myth of Birds' Eerie Homing Sense

ITHACA, N. Y.—Birds turned loose in a strange place far from home do not fly straight to their nests, guided by some mysterious instinct or some hidden sense.

They cruise in curving lines, with a suggestion of spiraling, apparently getting home by plain ordinary exploration.

This is the conclusion reached as the result of experiments by two Cornell university ornithologists, Drs. Ronald H. Griffin and Raymond J. Hock.

They chose gannets for their tests, because these big white sea birds are easily seen at a distance and because it was safe to assume that they had never of their own accord gone far from the coast.

They carried a number of them into the interior of New Brunswick, where they turned them loose to find their own way home.

Only two of the birds flew in anything like a straight line for the coast. The others flew literally in all directions.

There was no evidence whatever of a "sense of direction."

Nickel Phone Call Costs This Young Lady $900.05

HOLLYWOOD.—It cost Sylvia Deming, 22, Dayton, O., $900.05 to make a five-cent telephone call. She left her wallet on a shelf below a public phone.

Miss Deming told officers she discovered the loss shortly after leaving a drug store phone booth but when she returned the wallet was gone.

"It's all I have in the world," she told police. "I arrived here by plane from Dayton to work as a beauty operator."

Train Smashes Auto Of Lost Motorists

Driver Mistakes Tracks for Highway Detour

NEW BEDFORD, MASS.—It was dark as pitch, the rain was coming down in torrents, but Otto Thebner of Middleboro felt extremely confident.

Take your next left turn to get back on Kings Highway, the man had told him.

Finally he saw an opening in the trees and swung his automobile to the left.

"Bumpy, isn't it?" his wife asked. "Look," she said a little later. "A hitchhiker. He seems terribly excited. Something must have gone wrong."

Thebner stopped. The "hitchhiker" rain dripping from his hat, stuck his head in the car window. "In two minutes," he said, "the Boston to New Bedford train goes by here."

"So what?" said Thebner. "So you're driving along the railroad tracks, that's what," the man said.

Thebner and his wife got out of the car just in time. It was demolished and dragged 35 feet by an Old Colony railroad train.

One woman passenger suffered minor cuts from shattered glass as the engine and two cars were derailed and 50 passengers were shaken.

Cops Catch Youth in Attempt To Make Brother Hang Self

DETROIT.—Ferndale police revealed that a 19-year-old youth was seized trying to force his 16-year-old brother to hang himself from a tree.

When police arrived in a wooded area they found two brothers, Samuel, Jr., 19, and Alfred Hibbit, 16, standing on a tree limb.

Police were called by neighbors who heard Alfred screaming. Alfred had a wire knotted around his neck with the other end fastened to an upper branch and his hands tied, police said.

Lt. Clifford Fritz of the Ferndale police said Samuel had hit Alfred on the head with a branch in an effort to make him jump.

Alfred told Fritz that his brother had been trying to get revenge because he had told their parents about a cache of vacuum cleaners and guns stolen by Samuel.

Samuel said they had just been having a friendly game of "cops and robbers."

Samuel is under bond awaiting sentence on a breaking-and-entering charge. He also is awaiting sentence for a hunting violation.

He was held for investigation.

Military Authorities Probe Source of Gravestone Walk

ARLINGTON, VA.—A ghouliah promenade built outside a tavern with gravestones from Arlington National cemetery is under investigation by military authorities.

The macabre footpath was fashioned from 17 tombstones, placed end to end with their inscriptions facing downward. Some bore nicknames, apparently chalked on since the walk had been laid.

The army was waiting to question the proprietor of the tavern who reportedly is out of town.

Col. W. L. Lee, military district information officer, said the tombstones had not been stolen from burial plots. It is quite common, he said, for headstones to be replaced by more elaborate monuments furnished by families of the deceased. However, cemetery regulations require that the original markers be returned to storage and that all inscriptions be obliterated, Lee said.

Canada Will Attempt to Make "Dry-Ice" Rain on Big Scale

OTTAWA.—Canadian government and scientific agencies will co-operate in rainmaking experiments to determine whether moisture can be induced artificially on a major scale.

The federal department of transport said that dry-ice particles would be sprinkled on heavy, rain-type clouds to induce them to give up their moisture.

The department added that if the experiments were successful, artificial rainmaking might be used over the western wheat-growing lands in dry years.

Vet Fireman Tells Jim Yarns About The Old Days

Frank B. Huber (center) organizer of the Lake County Firemen's association and for 12 years president of the Antioch department which he served 47 years, is shown telling Jim McMillan (right) present head of the department how they did it in the old days while James W. Stearns, (left) state deputy fire marshal and former chief of the Antioch department backs him up in some of his accounts. Huber was guest of honor at a dinner at Fireman's resort, Grass Lake, given by the Antioch firemen as a farewell prior to his leaving Sunday for Venice, Calif., to reside.

Unemployment Insurance Abuses

Is state unemployment insurance becoming something of a racket in many instances? The official figures lead one to that unsavory conclusion.

In 1946, a year of full employment, the ratio of benefits paid to contributions collected for the country as a whole was 120.1 per cent. Eighteen states paid out more in benefits than they received in unemployment levies, and three paid out more than twice as much.

The experience in 1947 was a little better. But the ratio of benefits paid to contributions collected was over 70 per cent, and several states paid out more than they took in.

It must be kept in mind that this happened during years when the national income, employment and production in general were at an all-time peak. In another depression with its consequent mass unemployment, it is almost impossible to visualize what would happen to the funds. Obviously, their receipt would be only a drop in the bucket compared to outgo, and a stupendous burden would be placed on the taxpayers.

Those who have studied the matter are convinced that many men are using the unemployment funds as a means of obtaining free vacations when they don't feel like working—and that laxity either in the law or in the administration of the law is making this possible. That is a no excusable abuse of a system which was set up to help those who were out of work through no fault of their own and couldn't find a job after a period of honest, aggressive searching. It must be stopped, and it can only be stopped by action within the states.

The Real Loser?

The average rates of municipally-owned utilities in Minnesota are higher than those of the private utilities in the state, in spite of a substantial tax advantage, according to an exhaustive survey by Arthur M. Borak, professor at the University of Minnesota.

Comparing the taxes of municipal and private utilities in that state, Mr. Borak found, in general, municipally-owned utilities contributed funds and free services in lieu of taxes about equal to the state and local taxes paid by private utilities, measured by gross earnings. But privately-owned utilities carried the heavy added burden of Federal taxes.

His study of tax rates and municipal indebtedness in the cities and villages of the state revealed that, for the most part, localities with municipally-owned generating plants had comparatively larger debts. Likewise, the tax burden was higher in these localities. The tax levy per capita on tangible property for 1946 levies payable in 1947 was $10.25 in 63 communities served by municipally-owned generating plants, $6.25 in the 609 communities served by private electric utilities. In addition to this private electric utilities had lower rates than municipally-owned generating plants and they paid more in taxes than the publicly-owned systems contributed in the form of direct payments plus free services.

Rates or taxes, however, are small matters compared with changing a nation's political and industrial economy from free opportunity to the socialized state, and that is what public ownership of industry on a large scale leads to.

your NEW telephone directory is at your service!

We have made it as accurate and complete as we know how. It will serve you best if you follow these five suggestions:

1. Give your old directory to the man who delivers your new one.
2. Check your memo list of frequently called numbers against the new directory to be sure they're right.
3. Look in the new directory for any number you're not sure of. That way, you'll avoid mistakes and wrong numbers.
4. Save time by finding the number in the directory instead of calling information.
5. Use the "Classified" section (the yellow pages in most directories) when you want products, services or professional help.

The cost of SQUEAKS is way up, too!

SQUEAKS in your car mean dollars out of your pocket when you go to trade her in. They're signs of metal wearing away—and it doesn't take much of that to put a car on the junk heap.

So don't wait until your car groans for lubrication. Drive in now for a check-up. Our lubrication man will turn his eagle eye on everything—oil filter, engine, transmission, differential, chassis . . . the whole works. He'll renew, refill and repack wherever necessary. Your small investment will get you a sweeter ride now, and a sweeter trade-in deal on the big day when your new Chrysler arrives!

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF NORTHERN ILLINOIS

'General Store' In N.Y. Sells Pigs, Gold, Gas Masks

Salvage Division of City Disposes of Weird Possessions

NEW YORK, N. Y.—How would you like some slightly used radioactive gold? Maybe you would be interested in a ferry boat for the missus, some pigs or a bright red fire engine for Junior.

If so, there's a general store in New York city that will be glad to have you for a customer.

The man to see about all this is Leo P. Flood, who operates one of the weirdest general stores in the world. He is in charge of the salvage division in the New York City department of purchases.

Most everyone else in his department buys things. He sells them. It's his job to dispose of municipal possessions—waste material, worn-out or surplus equipment—anything that'll still bring a buck.

Flood's been selling more than $500,000 worth of stuff a year. This year the figure may reach $800,000. His wares come from various places—police and fire departments, hospitals, prisons, schools and almost every phase of city government.

He does not handle material collected directly from the citizenry by the police and sanitation departments—like guns or illegal drugs or the refuse put out in garbage cans every morning by private residents.

But he can and does find a market for refuse which comes from city institutions.

Sells Ashes and Cinders

Last year, for example, Flood received: $7,100 for about 5,000 truckloads of ashes and cinders from firms which use the stuff to make building blocks; $5,000 for 3,500 tons of garbage and swill sold to pig farms; $12,000 for bones, entrails, fats, grease and scrap gristle left over from city-owned kitchens and bought by people who make fats for soap (one year this included the mortal remains of a lion and bear which died at a city zoo).

Don't Grimize. All this saves the taxpayers money.

Among the odd items that will go to the highest bidders this year are 500 grams of radioactive gold, 165 grams of just plain gold, 250 pigs from city-owned reform school farms, a $50,000 cannery, two iron lungs, two fire engines, one ferry boat, two wooden deck scows, several steam-rollers, 11 dozen pairs of reading glasses, maybe a plane now used by the police, and a wide assortment of stuff left over from the days of civilian defense.

Gold Comes in Tubings

The radioactive gold is in tubings which were used to encase radon, a radium gas used in the treatment of cancer. The other, unpolluted gold, which could be used for dental fillings, is in new tubings which were intended for but never used in the cancer treatment.

The civilian defense equipment remaining from those dark days when cities tried to prepare themselves for attack includes a wide assortment:

Ten thousand gas masks, 107 pounds of ointment for burns, 900 air raid warden arm bands, 1,750 flashlight batteries, 1 blackboard, 2 metal bombs and 34 wooden bombs once used for demonstration, 351 blood bank bottles (you supply the blood), 3,000 stretchers, 13,000 metal helmets, 1,000 surgical dressings, 140 pairs of asbestos gloves, and the keys to 879 street lamps.

Small Boy Captures Nimble Goat With Flying Tackle

DES MOINES.—A flying tackle by a 12-year-old boy put a stop to the escapades of a fabulous goat.

The critter's first triumph came when he eluded 2 patrolmen by leaping 20 feet from a church roof. A startled grocer called headquarters to report: "There's a goat on my roof." Patrolman William Purdy, who was sent to the scene, called back:

"That goat's as big as a cow. He runs like a deer."

Later a whole squad of pursuers closed in after trapping the goat against a 4-foot fence. The goat leaped the fence. But Walter Davis, 12, saw the goat on a porch, caught him and hung on.

Death Reunites Mother and Dead Hero From Guadalcanal

GAFFNEY, S. C.—Mrs. Hester Porter Thompson waited a long time for her son to come home from the war.

At first it was hopeful waiting. Then the news came that Marine Pfc. Edgar Dean Thompson had been killed in action on Guadalcanal.

After that it was painful, hopeless waiting for his body to come home for burial on native soil.

Pfc. Thompson finally came home for the last time. He and his mother were side by side at last. She died shortly after her son's body arrived from the Pacific. Double funeral services were held.

Chaser of 'Peeping Tom' Loses Race by a Foot

PITTSBURGH.—Preston Terry, 31, lost his left foot as he was dragged for three blocks behind the auto of a "Peeping Tom" he was attempting to catch.

Terry told doctors he was entering his home when he saw a man peering into a neighbor's window.

He seized the man, the doctors quoted him as saying, but the "Peeping Tom" broke away and drove off in a car. Terry's foot was caught in a loop of rope or wire hanging from the auto. He was dragged three blocks before his foot was severed.

War Widow's Bid of $15 Wins Her Home

Bidders Remain Silent During County Auction Sale

BEDFORD, IND.—A young war widow here with five children became a home owner just for $15.

Her modest home north of Bedford went on the auction block at a county real estate sale for the collection of delinquent taxes.

Mrs. Donna Blevins, clutching all the ready cash she could raise, was there. Her husband, Carl, died of an illness contracted while in the service. The husband inherited the house from his father five years ago.

The widow was afraid that she and her five youngsters would be evicted by the buyer.

County Auditor Donald Smith addressed the crowd of bargain hunters.

"This property is occupied by a war widow who is the mother of five children," he said. "She has very little income."

Auctioneer Mark Boyd rapped his gavel. "What am I bid?" he asked. There was a small babble of voices, but the auctioneer interrupted.

"I've got to point out that this is a public auction and anyone can bid," he said. "But I'm also going to point out, as Smith did, that a young mother and her children now live there. Now, then, what am I bid?"

Mrs. Blevins raised one hand. "I'll bid $15," she cried. The auctioneer didn't hesitate. His gavel came down with a resounding whack.

"Sold to the lady for $15."

Waiting to Be Rescued, 11 Perish in Sweeping Blaze

UTICA, N. Y.—A sweeping flash fire snuffed out the lives of 11 members of one family awaiting rescue from their flaming, two-story frame dwelling. Eight bodies were recovered by firemen from the smoking ruins. Six were children. One was a woman, clasping an infant.

Fourteen scantily clad persons fled from the building, Fire Chief Leo Barry said. A couple and their daughter, 19, were hospitalized with burns after jumping from a second floor window.

The walls of the long, ramshackle building collapsed before most of the second floor occupants who had been asleep could get out.

Mary Hoage, 13, who was injured when she jumped from a second story porch into a snow bank, said other members of her family were huddled in one room waiting for rescue when the building collapsed. Her father, Richard, was at work in a garage.

"They all stayed in the front room and yelled for help," she said. "I told the others I would catch the babies if they would drop them to me, but they said the firemen would help them and they waited. That was the last I saw of them."

The 11 persons who reached safety without apparent injury stood weeping at the ruins while firemen searched. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Police Save Brutal Father From Death by Angry Crowd

COLUMBIA, S. C.—A husky, 6-foot railroad shop laborer was rescued from a mob shortly after, police charged, he lashed his 11-year-old son to death.

William A. Plott, Richland County coroner, said a threatening crowd of more than 200 people had gathered outside the home of Thomas Andrew White, 34.

"Only the arrival of the police cars averted mob action against White," Plott said.

Chief of city detectives William A. Rawlinson reported the 200-pound father, formally charged with murder, calmly admitted having tied up his son in the bathroom and beaten him into unconsciousness.

Rawlinson said the boy's wrists were tied together behind his back and the body suspended by a rope under the shoulders.

"He wouldn't tell me the truth," police quoted White as saying, about a dollar bill the boy had collected yesterday. "I beat him and he wouldn't tell me."

Rawlinson said the father called the doctor when the boy failed to regain consciousness.

Hangers for Garments

Every garment should be on a separate hanger. This keeps it in shape and avoids wrinkles. Hangers which are covered with a rough fabric will keep clothes from slipping and keep the shoulders in shape.

Overseas Markets

Southern farmers depend on overseas markets for about half of their cotton sales, and 30 per cent of their tobacco sales.

Bull Fights Forbidden

In Washington D. C. fighting a bull calls for a penalty of five years in jail, and sickening one dog on another means a $5 fine for the offender.

Methodist Church School To Make Wire Recording Sunday for Station WGN

The Antioch Methodist church school will be on the air indirectly Sunday morning.

Meeting promptly at 9:30 a. m., 15 minutes earlier than usual, the school will provide a radio recording for the Chicago radio station WGN.

The WGN mobile unit will arrive at the church at 8:30 a. m. and two men will set up the recording equipment comprising portable turntables, a wire recorder, an amplifier, and several microphones in preparation for the recording of the "Youth Looks Up" program at which the church will be the guest. One microphone will be placed by the piano, two near the choir, and one in the center aisle for the announcer.

Philip Maxwell of the Chicago Tribune, who will be the visiting superintendent of the air, will take charge of the program. He conducts similar programs spotlighting the high schools called "Citizens of Tomorrow."

Methodist Jerry Walker, famed for his "Victorious Living" programs will tell his usual Bible story. The story will then be placed on the air later by means of the recording, and the Antioch people will be able to hear themselves in song and recital.

State Corn Crop Good, County Crop Quite Poor

Although Illinois is slated for a bumper crop of corn, one would never know it by the corn in Lake county. Farm Adviser Ray T. Nicholas joins with others in saying that it is the spottiest he has ever seen in the county.

Wheat and rye have turned and are about ready for cutting and threshing. Oats is turning. The dry weather of last week may have hurt oats which had a very good start at the outset. It should be a good yield, however.

Fishing Bulletin No. 14
After a marked lull for several days black bass fishing conditions have taken a decided turn for the better, it was stated today by the Chicago office of the Department of Conservation.

Based on reports from conservation officers throughout the Chicago area, the announcement stated that the bronzebacks started hitting again Monday and Tuesday—on both live bait and plugs.

Strings of bass up to three and four pounds in weight have been reported from lakes throughout Lake and Cook counties. Minnows and crabs have done their share in attracting the largemouths, while many have been taken on both surface and spoon lures. Best spots reported are lakes of the Fox Chain and other nearby waters and the Fox and Kishwaukee Rivers.

Both bluegills and crappie fishing, however, remained in decline, while the best perch fishing of the year is reported on Lake Michigan.

Woman With Personality Wields Unlimited Power Says N. U. Psychologist

Never underestimate the power of a woman—with personality! Thus admonishes a Northwestern University psychologist, Associate Professor Albert C. Van Dusen, is willing to tread on treacherous ground and assert a few opinions about the distasteful side of society.

What's the difference between the woman with personality and her less popular sister? The professor believes that the former has a greater feeling of security within herself. All women, he generalizes, dangerously, have the same fundamental desires at the roots of their behavior, but the personality girls are more glowing and self-assured because more of their wants are satisfied. And he doesn't mean mere material desires, either. He refers to goals, aims, social success, and recognition.

"A woman who genuinely feels adequate and secure finds it easy to help others gain similar satisfaction," he believes, "and with the force of her personality wins popularity by helping others. Besides experiencing personal adequacy, she is always sensitive to the other fellow's desire to taste the same successes she enjoys. What is more, she sees to it that the other fellow DOES!"

And what of those basic desires common to all women, whether they fulfill them or not? Perhaps many a dissatisfied woman will appreciate having them described for her. According to Prof. Van Dusen's analysis, here they are: more affection; a feeling of "belonging" in favorite social groups; "amounting to something"; and a feeling of recognition, achievement, and appreciation.

The psychologist sums up the woman with personality this way: "Everyone approves of her. She somehow lives in a way enabling her to like people, and to make them like her. When she's around, one just feels better himself for having been associated with her. Its as though she had some desirable, extra, unlimited 'power' which we would like to have ourselves."

Tung Orchard Yields
By the time a tung orchard is eight years old it should be yielding one and one-half to two tons of air-dry nuts per acre.

Parents Warned to Watch For Symptoms of Polio

The Lake County unit of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis this week issued a warning to the public that this is polio time and that the best defense against the disease is early diagnosis.

The report came after a mild case was reported in Lake Villa township. The child is back at play after three weeks of treatment in St. Therese hospital.

Symptoms to watch for are mainly fatigue, sore throat, muscle pains, and in some instances fever. Children should be watched closely and not permitted to get chilled or go in water where there is a possibility of pollution.

Discouraging Moths
Most effective way of preventing moth damage is by treating the fabric chemically so that the larvae refuses to attack it.

U. S. Railroad Bridges
There are in the United States 191,779 railroad bridges, which, if placed end to end, would extend nearly 4,000 miles.
